Nice little platformer. easy to master with some tricky situations. rising lava level.check water level.check air level.check ha its all there what even are those purple things and why are those fish like beasts from hell.. Fun little platformer! Definitely worth the low asking price. Probably around 1-2 hours to beat (depending upon how good you are at platfomers). Quite straightforward levels but very charming hand-made graphics and funny voice acting. Plenty of fun, jokey references in there as well. Good checkpointing for the most part - and unlimited lives, thankfully! - but it also gets quite challenging later on. Some tough boss fights too but they never felt unfair, just required some very precise play. One small gripe is that it only saves progress permanently after beating a boss, so you can't just hop on and play one level.. Fun little platformer! Definitely worth the low asking price.
